

update on district grant for 2000 by DB for JH

Bylaws updates, no substantive changes, only on the corporate changes

Ross questions the menu for lunch, Joe and Ross will speak with the manager of Copelands to see if we can have more variety. Also, Ross notes it is a nuisance for people to cross through the room, Joe will also talk to them. We can also advise the greater to have people refrain during invocation, etc. Also if they could put a sign on the door to the second room sayin 'don't slam the door'

William notes he has not been able to get into the zoom meeting lately and Joe will get a good link out.

Todd feels that the zoom meeting could be a good time to abandon it since it is high maintenance and low users on zoom weekly, usually 1 or 2
